Medical Bill Signed Into a Law by Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed into law the bill setting up a new federal-state program to help pay medical expenses of needy persons over 65.

Sponsors of the legislation estimate that 12.4 million of the 16 million Americans over 65 will be eligible for benefits under the medical care provisions.

The federal government will pay an expected $22 million to help finance the program the first year, with 60 million coming from the states.

By the fifth year, it is figured the costs will be $340 million in federal funds, $180 million in state contributions. Later the total would go higher. Secretary of Health Arthur S. Flemming estimates it could "certainly" hit $1.5 billion.

The six and extent of the benefits are entirely up to each state. The program could get under way Oct. 1, but it is not known how many states will be ready by then.

The new law also includes a number of minor liberalizations in the Social Security Act.

Star's Camera Takes Close Look at 12,000 Local Turkeys

Donna Heads to Sea Leaving Death, Damage

BOSTON (AP)—Hurricane Donna went into history today after a relentless march up the Atlantic Coast which spread terror, death and destruction from the Leeward Islands to Maine.

The grim toll stood at 135 known dead, scores missing, thousands homeless and property damage estimated at nearly a billion dollars. Twenty of the deaths were in the United States.

Donna headed out of the United States Monday night, moving on a north-northeasterly course out of Maine toward the Maritime provinces. The U. S. Weather Bureau at Boston said Donna had lost her hurricane winds and forecast further decrease in intensity.

The hurricane, born in the Caribbean sea over a week ago, bulged with 135 m.p.h. winds as it raked the Leeward Islands, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Florida and the Atlantic seaboard to New England.

President Eisenhower designated sections of Florida of major disaster area. Gov. Leroy Collins informed the President that the damage was extensive.

GOPs Against Amendment 52

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Proposed constitutional amendment 52 backed by Gov. Orval F. Faubus in the 1959 legislature, should be defeated, Faubus' Republican opponent said Monday.

Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs formally accepting his nomination at the Republican State Convention here, said Amendment 52 wouldn't solve anyone's dispute over segregation, but "would disavow our public schools as a necessary public service."

The measure would allow local option closing of public schools to avert integration.

Britt also called for an amendment to limit a governor to a single four-year term. Faubus is seeking his fourth two-year term in the Democratic nomination.

Britt also favored setting a $1,200 annual minimum wage for school teachers and a constitutional amendment to provide for an elected commissioner of education with a single board of trustees for the University of Arkansas and all state-supported colleges.

Farmers Can Profit on Low Hog Prices

Facts and figures prove that farmers can make money when hog prices are low. This was proven by Ralph Montgomery of Hope.

Ralph showed his accounts to Wade Benefield, Associate County Agent and the following information tells the story.

In 1959 Montgomery fed out 111 head of hogs and netted $280.00. The profit was made when all the pigs were brought to the pen point.

The story is told in quite different terms. This year Montgomery fed out 62 head of hogs which were purchased at the following prices:

On March 25, 1960, he purchased 12 head of hogs for $22.00. The feed cost was $1.20 per head. The total cost was $14.40. The profit was $8.60.

The feed cost for the hogs was $1.20 per head. The total cost was $14.40. The profit was $8.60.

U. S. Files Vote Suit in Memphis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers charged in a civil suit at Memphis, Tenn., today that economic pressures have been used to prevent Negroes from registering to vote in Haywood County, Tenn.

The action, filed in U. S. District Court, names 29 defendants, including two banks.

It marks the first use of a section of the 1957 Civil Rights Act which prohibits intimidation or threats to prevent voting registrations by eligible citizens.

The banks named are the First State Bank of Brownsville, Inc., and the Peoples Bank of Stanton, Inc. The other defendants are individuals living in Haywood County.

The government charges that this group conspired to bring about economic discrimination against Negroes identified with the Haywood County Civil and Welfare League, which has organized in 1959 to encourage Negro registrations and voting.

The Memphis court was asked for an injunction prohibiting any such practices in the future.

Officers said the bullet struck DeWayne Beene in the chest Monday. He was dead on arrival at a hospital. Police said the boy and his brother, Gerald Lynn, were playing in a room of their parents house.

Their father was at work. The mother was in another part of the house.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huey Beene, have two younger children.

Ike Invited to Complete Visit by Japanese

WASHINGTON (AP)—Japan has formally invited President Eisenhower to complete his goodwill visit there, either before or after he leaves the White House next January.

Authoritative sources made this known today after Japanese Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaka delivered a personal message from Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda to the President.

High sources said it appeared most likely that Eisenhower would accept the invitation sometime after Jan. 20 when he steps out of office.

Kosaka would not divulge the contents of the Ikeda message to Eisenhower, which he delivered during a 3½-hour meeting with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

But he told a news conference that the "nightmare situation" of last June when leftist rioting caused Eisenhower to postpone a goodwill mission to Tokyo has now been dispelled.

Red Premier Mad Over Restriction

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, steaming across the choppy Atlantic for the U.N. General Assembly, fired off the message today that he doesn't think much of the U.S. decision to limit him to the island of Manhattan.

It is "not a reasonable decision," he messaged the London Daily Express from his ship. The paper had asked for comment on the U.S. decision announced Sunday.

Furthermore, Khrushchev said, the restriction was not conducive to better understanding between the United States and the Soviet Union. He also indicated U.S. government officials did not want to settle questions to be considered by the U.N. body.

The stocky chief of the Soviet Union accompanied by top brass from five Communist satellites and republics is due in New York aboard the Soviet ship Balika Sept. 19.

The Soviet news agency Tass said Khrushchev was receiving messages from numerous persons in the United States asking for a chance to meet him. The agency said messages were coming in from newspapers, radio and TV stations asking questions about the coming assembly session and "other international problems."

The Khrushchev party was about 300 miles out in the Atlantic in the 8,000-ton Soviet motor vessel. The ship was traveling alone. Khrushchev dismissed his two escort destroyers Monday night.

Russia Accuses UN Secretary in Congo Fuss

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union today accused Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld of violating Security Council instructions on the Congo. It asked that the council convene at 3 p.m. EDT to talk the charges.

Patricio Ortuno, Italian ambassador who is president of the council this month, conferred with other members on the Soviet request, made in a letter to him.

There was no immediate decision on whether to convene the meeting.

The confusion over who is running the Congo was amplified by the withdrawal of United Arab Republic troops from the U.N. force in the Congo and the arrival of contesting Congo delegations here.

The council who had a brief session Monday afternoon as the situation was getting more involved, and U.S. delegate James J. Wadsworth moved quickly for adjournment.

He explained afterward, "There is not much point in talking until you have a sound basis of information on which to speak."

The Soviet delegate, Deputy Foreign Minister Valentin A. Zorin, tried to get an urgent night meeting but Council President Eglio Ortuno of Italy, after conferring with other members, decided the meeting would be of little use.

The rival factions in the Congo government each sent delegations. One faction headed by Foreign Minister Justin Bomboko represented President Joseph Kasavubu. The other group headed by Thomas Kanza, the Congo's delegate-designate to the U.N., represents Premier Patrice Lumumba.

It was too soon to see clearly what the U.A.R. withdrawal would mean. President Gamal Abdel Nasser sent about 600 paratroopers to the Congo two weeks ago. A U.A.R. spokesman in Cairo accused the U.N. of violating the Congo's sovereignty by taking over Congolese airports and radio broadcasting stations.

Cairo's Middle East News Agency said the U.A.R. and East Africa can Sudanese troops turned control of Leopoldville airport over to 200 Congolese soldiers.

The U.N. said, however, that the two platoons of Congolese had voluntarily placed themselves under the command of U.N. forces at the airport. The airport was said to remain under the full control of a Sudanese colonel.

Nixon Takes Vote Drive Cross Country

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon pitched his major appeal for votes today on a theme of "What is best for America" as he launched a jet-propelled cross-country campaign for the presidency.
 His chartered jet airliner carried him into the sunshine of Indiana for the day's second of four speeches on a coast-to-coast schedule from a kick-off talk at Baltimore's rain-battered Friendship Airport.
 In Baltimore, to an enthusiastic but reduced crowd forced indoors by the downpour from the fringes of Hurricane Donna, Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge, his vice-presidential running mate, got a send-off from President Eisenhower, who likened himself to a political "war horse" who smelled the dust of the campaign.
 "We have the finest team America could choose," Eisenhower said. "They will fight for peace, they will fight for freedom."

Rights Party to Be on the Nov. Ballot

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The National States Rights Party, which has nominated Gov. Orval B. Faubus for president, will be represented on the November general election ballot in Arkansas.
 Secretary of State C. G. Hall said today that a check showed that petitions submitted to him contained enough signatures to get the names of the party's presidential elector candidates before the voters.
 A party convention at Miami, Fla., last March nominated Faubus for president and retired Admiral John G. Crommelin of Wetumpka, Ala., for vice president.
 Faubus has said repeatedly he is not a candidate for president on any ticket. He said recently that he would vote for the Democratic national ticket. However, he did not attempt to discourage the third party ticket.
 By Arkansas law, no set of electors is bound to support any par-

Ballot Ruling Asked of Bennett

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Secretary of State C. G. Hall today asked Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett for a ruling on the legality of a petition filed by Ben McCray of Benton asking that his name be placed on the November ballot as a candidate for 15th District chancellor. McCray filed the petition Friday only hours after the death of the Democratic nominee for chancellor, P. D. Goza of Malvern. Goza was nominated in this summer's Democratic primary.

Hall asked Bennett to rule on whether the petition was sufficient to place McCray's name on the ballot and also if McCray should be listed as Independent or an independent Democrat.

Husband Acts Like a Jailer

By HELEN WORDEN ERTKINE

Dear Helen:

I am at the end of my rope and feel like committing suicide. I had a very unhappy childhood. I was terrified of my father. He had a terrific temper. My only pleasant memories are of the times I spent with my grandparents and aunts.

I am 37-years old, married for the first time, divorced from my first husband. He was a very good provider. Nothing material that I did not have: beautiful home, two cars but—he did not love our four children. I left him because of this:

Years passed. I met the man to whom I am now married. We must have broken off 50 times but he kept telling me he loved me and I weakened. He is insanely jealous and as a result I am completely isolated from all those I know, even my four girls. He and our baby are the only human beings I see. I try to talk to him and can't. Opening up his mind is like opening up a deep freeze.

My girls are at my mother's. I have no money. We have a telephone that never rings. Living in jail would be better than this. I used to be attractive but I've aged 10 years in the last two. When I look in the mirror I get sick.

My husband is English. I was born Dutch. Maybe now you understand my poor English. You are my last hope. I have never written to anyone before like this. I am so tired of living. O, God, help me! —Mrs. R. H.

Tear Mrs. R. H.: Suicide is never the answer. Resolve to free yourself from this bondage, if only for the sake of your children. They need you.

No one human being has the right to enslave another. Don't even debate the question with your husband. Assert yourself. Look him straight in the eye and tell him quietly but firmly that he cannot dominate you. You're in the fix you're in because it is easier to say yes than no. If you are ever to get out of it, you must strengthen your will. Deliberately exercise it each day. No matter what your husband asks you to — even if it's only, "Will you pass the butter?" say no.

This was an exercise a great nerve specialist gave my mother when, after my father's death, she lost the will to do anything, even live. It worked. Try it!

Dear Helen:

When I was in the third grade I was very, very popular, but in the fourth fifth and sixth, I just didn't click. I joined the Little Theater Program this summer. There I met the most popular girl at Junior High. She can do anything. Watching her, I'm beginning to think I'm a failure. I have two more years of school and want to be popular by then. What should I do? —Unpopular Actress

Dear Unpopular Actress: It's all in the way you think! Be natural. Enjoy life and popularity will follow. Never stop believing in yourself.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Ertkine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "How To Get Along with an Adolescent."

Florida Digs Out From Storm Debris

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Floridians planned massive repair and cleanup projects today in the wake of one of the century's worst hurricanes.

Gov. Leroy Collins said he intended to ask President Eisenhower to declare portions of south Florida a major disaster area and scheduled a helicopter flight to stricken sections.

An estimated 250,000 homes were without electricity and thousands of telephones were still out after passage of killer Hurricane Donna.

Seven persons were known dead in the state and two others were missing and presumed dead. Southeastern Red Cross headquarters in Atlanta listed 75 persons injured and 57 hospitalized.

The Red Cross reported 655 homes destroyed in Florida and said 3,208 received major damage and 9,299 minor damage.

Property damage in the Florida Keys alone was estimated by insurance adjusters at between $30 and $40 million. Fort Myers and Lee County sustained damage estimated at $70 to $80 million, according to Sheriff Flanders.

Three Injured in Missouri

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An Oklahoma City woman is in critical condition and two other persons are in serious condition today as a result of a light plane crash on an island in Grand Lake near here Sunday night.

Mrs. Evelyn McLaughlin, 46, was critically injured in the crash and is in a Tulsa hospital. In serious condition in a Miami, Okla. hospital are Charles Burba, 30, and his wife, Virginia, 30. Mrs. McLaughlin is a sister of Mrs. Burba.

The Burba's son, Chris, 6, is hospitalized but his condition is not believed serious.

The four were riding in a Piper Apache piloted by Burba which crashed shortly after taking off from a private airstrip on Monkey Island in Grand Lake.

2 Escape From Reformatory
JERSEY CITY (AP)—Two young men who escaped from a New Jersey reformatory Sept. 5 were recaptured Sunday in Cape Girardeau, County but they won't be returned to Algon at once.

They have been charged with a burglary and a car theft in Gasconade County and will face charges there first. Gasconade County Sheriff Harry J. Heberle went to Cape Girardeau County to pick them up.

The highway patrol identified the pair as Carl Edward Willis and John Edward Willis.

In addition 5,000 gallons of water was being brought to homes. Air Force Base to be ferried to residents in the keys by the Navy. Water was rationed at Key West on the tip of the keys. Hotels and motels were asked to drain their swimming pools and give the water to residents for washing.

One of the major hardships in the wake of the storm was the lack of electricity in the warm climate. Refrigerators and freezers were virtually useless. Food spoiled and there wasn't any way to heat water or cook.

A total of 152,000 homes were without electricity in the greater Miami area of a million persons. Many thousands of homes were without power in the Tampa area.

The Bluff Dwellers, believed to have dwelled in Arkansas before 500 A.D., are said to have used darts thrown from a grooved stick much like the Aztec atlatl, to kill deer, turkey and other game.

In a dramatic televised half hour and a subsequent extended question period, Kennedy said in a broad-ranging discussion he supports separation of church and state so strongly that if elected he would resign the presidency should its duties conflict with the tenets of his faith.

He insisted this never could happen. And he fielded a series of prepared questions which seemed to be designed to show that no matter what statements he might make, his church would influence his course in office.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., who is lending his personal support to Kennedy by traveling with the nominee in his intensive swing through Texas, summed up the reaction to this unusual campaign show.

"As we say in my part of Texas, he ate 'em blood raw. They only asked silly questions," said Rayburn who describes himself as a "hard shell" Baptist.

Kennedy said he regarded the result of his verbal joust with the Protestant clergy as satisfactory. He complimented the ministers for applauding some of his answers. He said he thought most of the questions fired at him were politely put.

When he touched down at Austin Monday night, Kennedy told a cheering airport crowd he thinks he has made some political hay in the state.

BACKFIRE

by Janet Henry

We bought a sandbox, wading pool, and swing. To keep our little dears from wandering. And end up every day (we might have known) With everybody's children but our own.

extraordinary measures to prevent loss of life and reduce property damage.

Thousands were evacuated from beach areas at Long Island, N.Y., Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, as Donna rumbled toward the densely populated Northeast. Emergency measures were put into effect from Virginia to Maine.

New Englanders, recalling the murderous hurricane of 1938, considered themselves lucky as Donna blustered across the coastal sections of five of the six states.

The winds and water snarled power and communication lines, smashed small boats at their moorings and felled countless trees.

The 1938 hurricane battered Connecticut, Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts, killing about 600 and causing some $500 million in property damage.

New York City was flicked by Donna on her northward course, virtually emptying the metropolis' busy streets with a combination of fierce winds and drenching rain. Schools were closed. Streets were turned into swirling, foamy rivers and the Hudson River spewed across the West Side Highway, one of Manhattan's busiest traffic arteries.

Between Florida and New England, the hurricane roared with terrifying fury, buffeting Virginia, Maryland, and North Carolina. Morehead City, N. C., was hit with particular force.

In 1926 a half dozen workmen at Helena built a sawmill acclaimed as being the "first manufacturing plant" in the Arkansas territory operated by steam power.

Commenting on the decision to limit Khrushchev's visit to Manhattan Island, Nixon remarked that when the premier was here before Nixon joined in preparing public opinion for the reception at a time when he pretended friendship for President Eisenhower and the United States.

"I think now that Khrushchev has acted in such an insulting way to the President of the United States there is a much graver risk," Nixon said.

Nixon resumed his cross-country drive for votes today on the theme that the Republican ticket offers the best hope of maintaining "peace without surrender" in the continuing years of crisis.

He said it is the overriding issue.

His news conference preceded a talk dedicating, as President Eisenhower's representative, the SS Hope. The floating medical center and training school soon will steam to Indonesia.

In a dramatic televised half hour and a subsequent extended question period, Kennedy said in a broad-ranging discussion he supports separation of church and state so strongly that if elected he would resign the presidency should its duties conflict with the tenets of his faith.

He insisted this never could happen. And he fielded a series of prepared questions which seemed to be designed to show that no matter what statements he might make, his church would influence his course in office.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, D-Tex., who is lending his personal support to Kennedy by traveling with the nominee in his intensive swing through Texas, summed up the reaction to this unusual campaign show.

"As we say in my part of Texas, he ate 'em blood raw. They only asked silly questions," said Rayburn who describes himself as a "hard shell" Baptist.

Kennedy said he regarded the result of his verbal joust with the Protestant clergy as satisfactory. He complimented the ministers for applauding some of his answers. He said he thought most of the questions fired at him were politely put.

When he touched down at Austin Monday night, Kennedy told a cheering airport crowd he thinks he has made some political hay in the state.

Religion No Issue, Says Mr. Nixon

By ERNEST B. VACCARO SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today he accepted and thought others should. Sen. John F. Kennedy's position on the religious issue.

The Republican presidential nominee also told a news conference he thought President Eisenhower's decision to limit Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to Manhattan on his coming visit to the United Nations was "dictated by security requirements all of us closed he has prepared for early delivery a major speech supporting civil rights as it relates 'to the extension of peace through freedom throughout the world.'

As for the religious issue—Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, is a Roman Catholic—Nixon said he himself can best serve to keep it out of the campaign by making no further comment on it. He said he had made his own position clear and did not intend to add "any fuel to the discussion."

TWO/MINUTE MYSTERY

THE CASE OF THE STOLEN PAINTINGS

By DONALD J. SOBEL

Dr. Haledjian arrived ten minutes early for his dinner appointment with Arthur Corning. The evening was to be a celebration Arthur had just been bequeathed a brownstone house by his cousin Harriet Trease.

The youth was far from the prototype of the happy heir as he greeted Haledjian.

"Good heavens, if you'd only got here five minutes sooner!" he exclaimed. "The paintings. They've been stolen!"

"Calm yourself and tell me what happened," said Haledjian.

"As you know, my cousin had assembled a modest art collection," said the young man. "Her six favorite oils hung in her study — two by Picasso, two by Renoir, and one each by Turner and Constable. The second-rate works of first-rate artists."

"Ten minutes ago I was alone in the study," went on the youth. "The burglar came up behind me, announced he had a gun, and ordered me to face the wall by the Renoir."

"He took down the five pictures and told me to hand him the Renoir. Then he slipped out."

"Without even seeing his face," said Haledjian skeptically.

Pirates Always Have Someone to Perk Up

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Now it's Dick Stuart, slugging home runs for distance, who is doing the job for the Pittsburgh Pirates, the club that always has a guy ready to perk 'em up.

Roberto Clemente, Bill Virdon, Hal Smith, Don Hoak, Bill Mazeroski, Dick Schofield, Dick Groat, Rocky Nelson—name all of the Bucs, they've all had a hat ready in their bid for Pittsburgh's first National League pennant in 33 years.

Stuart stepped in Monday night, belting his 20th home run, with a man on base, a triple and a single, as the Pirates whipped San Francisco 6-1 and officially eliminated the fifth-place Giants.

The victory also sent the Pirates into a 7½-game lead over both St. Louis and Milwaukee and reduced their magic number to 11. The Braves climbed within one percentage point of the second-place Cardinals with a 4-2 decision at St. Louis as Warren Spahn won his 19th.

Any combination of Pittsburgh victories and St. Louis defeats totaling 11 eliminates the Cardinals. The combination is 10 for the Pirates over Milwaukee, and seven over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who were rained out at Philadelphia.

Everybody had a day off in the American League, where the New York Yankees, leading by one game, play at Kansas City tonight while second-place Baltimore play at Detroit. Chicago's third-place White Sox, who trail by three games, play at home against Washington.

Stuart had his second three-hit game in a row, with each cluster including a long home run. The Pirates swung for 16 hits as southpaw Harvey Haddix won his 11th. Stuart has homered in three of Pittsburgh's last four victories.

Monday night's shot capped a three-run fourth inning that tied it against loser Jack Sanford (12-12). The inning began with a chill when center fielder Bill Virdon pulled up lame after running out a double for the Pirates.

Schofield, the "no-hit" shortstop who stepped in when Dick Groat suffered a broken wrist last week, continued his hitting, going 2-for-4. He is batting an even .500 as a regular.

Spahn, now within one of his 12th 20-victory season, checked the Cards on seven hits. He got out of a bases-loaded jam by fanning pinch-hitter Bob Nieman in the eighth. It was Spahn's 296th career victory and tied him with Pittsburgh's Vern Law for the season high.

"I hope I have a good chance to win. I would just as soon have a close first round. But I always play to win fast—my only thought is to get the match over as soon as I can and get off the golf course."

The hefty, boyish blond, who has no intention of turning pro, is used to close ones. Last year at Colorado Springs his relentless drive to the championship in golf's most gruelling match-play competition was underlined by a pair of 2 and 1 triumphs, a 1-up decision in 18 holes and 1-up conquests in the double round semifinals and finals.

Nicklaus, a bridegroom of six weeks, slipped from a 3-up lead after nine holes in Monday's first round of 72 matches and had to rally to defeat 38-year-old John Donohue of Des Moines.

Donohue whipped in putts of 20, 18 and 15 feet on the last nine graft to throw a scare into Nicklaus, who rapped home a tricky 5-footer for a winning par 4 on the last hole.
